A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

Ana Lavrador¹, Ana Cristina Tavares²
lavrador2@gmail.com; 2- anatav28@gmail.com
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

Objectives

- To use the databases of the Project "Atlas of the Literary Landscapes of Continental Portugal“, concerning literary excerpts from XIX and XX centuries;

- To create new tourism products for winegrowing regions;

- To present the example of a literary ride in the Douro Valley
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

- The Project: "Atlas of the Literary Landscapes of Continental Portugal";

- The theoretical support: the ECOCRITICISM
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

The Project: "Atlas of the Literary Landscapes of Continental Portugal"

THE APPLICATIONS:

- RESEARCH AND EDUCATION
- PROMOTION OF THE REGIONS AND PRODUCTS
- TERRITORIAL PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

THE LITERATURE AND THE TERRITORY

Literature of the XIX and XX centuries
Landscape descriptions
Georeferencing - NUT III

NUTs III - Nomenclature of territorial units, level III
1. Minho Lima
2. Câvado
3. Ave
4. Grande Porto
5. Tâmega
6. Entre Douro e Vouga
7. Douro
8. Alto Trás os Montes
9. Baixo Vouga
10. Baixo Mondego
11. Pinhal Litoral
12. Pinhal Interior Norte
13. Pinhal Interior Sul
14. Dão Lafões
15. Serra da Estrela
16. Beira Interior Norte
17. Beira Interior Sul
18. Cova da Beira
19. Oeste
20. Grande Lisboa
21. Península de Setúbal
22. Médio Tejo
23. Lezíria do Tejo
24. Alentejo Litoral
25. Alto Alentejo
26. Alentejo Central
27. Baixo Alentejo
28. Algarve

The Project: "Atlas of the Literary Landscapes of Continental Portugal"
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

THE LITERARY DATABASE

Central fields:
- Authors’ name
- Literary work and edition
- Page number
- Territorial reference

Secondary fields:
- Local (linked to Google maps)
- Relief
- Soil use
- Natural heritage
- Cultural heritage
- Human activities

The Project: "Atlas of the Literary Landscapes of Continental Portugal"
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

The Project "Atlas of the Literary Landscapes of Continental Portugal"

- Our Sub-Project:

  A Literary Guide for Tourism in Portuguese winegrowing regions

  To create tailor-made products concerning:

  • Time - the visitor has at his disposal
  • Target – adjusted to the tourist demand
  • Context – the region specificities
A literary ride in the Douro Demarcated Region

The touristic proposal: To reproduce the ride of a group of workers “roga”, during the harvest season

The book: The Grape Harvest (Vindima), published in 1945

The author: Miguel Torga (born in São Martinho de Anta, Douro), nominated for the Nobel Prize of Literature several times between 1960 and 1994
A literary ride through Bacchus’ landscapes

A literary ride in the Douro Demarcated Region - about 40km (5 miles)

1. Santa Marta de Penaguião - Maps and geographical information's about the Douro Valley

2. Panóias (A religious place) – The meanings and the functions of the archeological remains

3. São Martinho de Anta – A visit to the house where Miguel Torga was born, wine tasting and a folk presentation

4. Paços – The uniqueness of the Douro Demarcated Region (exercise of reading the landscape)

5. “Quinta da Cavadinha” – A visit to the vineyards and the cellar (regional meal)

6. “St. Leonardo of Galafura” belvedere (extra) – workshop of creative writing or other representation skills
A literary ride in the Douro Demarcated Region

6. “St. Leonardo of Galafura” belvedere

St. Leonardo of Galafura
At the prow of a ship made of cliffs,
Navigating through a sweet sea of must,
The Captain at his command post as
St. Leonardo crosses
The waves
Of eternity,
With no rush to reach his destiny.
Anchored and happy in the human pier,
It is with an anticipated disillusion
That he steers in the direction of the pier of the divine.

There will be no terrace
Nor extensive vineyards there
In the girl with the dazzled eyes;
The dried Douro
Will be bogs of light
Aged;
Flat, all of the hills
Will lengthen the horizon
Until the color of life extinguishes itself.
Hence, it is slowly that you approach
The beatitude
The plough advances laggardly
Under its mariner feet.
And each extra hour spent on the way
Is an extra sipping of scent
Earth and rosemary!

Miguel Torga, Diário IX